The following procedures are necessary to become a registered Explosives Users' Firm:

1. Submit to this office a completed application with a check or money order in the amount of one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165.00) made payable to the Department of Commerce and Insurance. Only fifteen dollars ($15.00) of the application fee is non-refundable.
2. Submit documented proof of liability insurance with a minimum coverage amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000.00). The insurance company must complete and sign the Certificate of Insurance Form and the words "INCLUDES BLASTING / EXPLOSIVES" must appear on the certificate. The "State of Tennessee, Department of Commerce and Insurance, Permits and Licenses Unit", at the above address, should be listed as the certificate holder. This certificate must be forwarded to this office.

Requirements for 3 Year Renewal of Explosives Firms:

1. Submit a renewal form with a check or money order for $150.00 made payable to the Department of Commerce and Insurance:

Certificate of Registration shall expire three (3) years following the date of issuance or renewal and is invalid on that date unless renewed.

A late fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) will be assessed for renewing after your registration expires. If you have not renewed your registration prior to one (1) year after it expires, you must begin the application process anew to obtain registration.

2. If a license has lapsed for a period of more than one (1) year, the firm must reapply for a license and meet all requirements for licensure.
3. All Certificates of Insurance must be current and on file in this office.

It is the responsibility of the licensee to notify this office of all address changes, including change of employer, to ensure licensure renewals are received in a timely manner.
